

Infections After Natural Disasters

California
Preparedness
Education Network

Module 5

Area Health Education Center (AHEC)

has 30 years of experience in the development, implementation, documentation, and publication of collaborative continuing education (CE) activities. AHEC collaborates with local stakeholders to coordinate and conduct educational sessions providing tools and resources.

Health Education & Training Center

a Division of Community Health Partnership, is the South Bay Area Health Education Health Education Center (AHEC), and administers the cal•PEN program for Santa Clara, San Mateo, San Francisco, Marin, Sonoma, Lake, Napa, Solano, Contra Costa, and Alameda Counties. Partners include California Poison Control System, California Academy of Family Physicians (CAFP) and University of California Television

DATE: TIME:
LOCATION:
ADDRESS:
ADDRESS:
SPEAKER:

This lecture-style presentation describes the potential risk of infections after natural disasters. A case study will be discussed.

Goals

1. The role of infectious diseases in natural disasters
2. Factors leading to a disease outbreak after a disaster
3. Review some of the common diseases and their treatment after a natural disaster

HEALTH EDUCATION & TRAINING CENTER

A Division of Community
Health Partnership

Funded by HRSA grant
T01HP01405

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number CEP 13988, for 1 contact hour.

This provider is authorized to confer 1 unit of California continuing dental education credit.

calPEN Modules 1-4 have been reviewed and accepted for up to 4 Prescribed Continuing Medical Education credits by the American Academy of Family Physicians.

These Modules have been approved through petition of the California State Board of Pharmacy as meeting its CE requirements for up to 4 hours of credit.